Brief Historical Background

The Legend

Behind the enchanting name of this town lies a beautiful legend that unfurls its humble beginning. The legend says that long ago, the Mangyans, the aborigines of Mindoro, settled in the lands near the mouth of Bansud River, which they called "BASUD" which means Delta. The delta provided fertile soil for the primitive people; hence they lived there peacefully and productively until the time that settlers from the provinces of Marinduque and Visayan Islands moved in. In many years that followed, the word "BASUD" was eventually changed to BANSUD.

Political Background

The Municipality of Bansud was formerly a barrio of the town of Bongabong, Oriental Mindoro. By virtue of R.A. No. 2514, sponsored by Congressman Jose J. Leido, Sr. and

Political Background

The Municipality of Bansud was formerly a barrio of the town of Bongabong, Oriental Mindoro. By virtue of R.A. No. 2514, sponsored by Congressman Jose J. Leido, Sr. and approved by President Carlos P. Garcia, Bansud was created into an independent municipality coinciding with the thirteenth (13th) celebration of the Philippine-American Friendship Day. July 4, 1959 marked the inauguration of Bansud as a town.

Composed of thirteen barangays, Bansud which is incidentally the thirteenth municipality of Oriental Mindoro began operating with thirteen (13) officials and employees – the mayor, the vice mayor, four (4) councilors, secretary, treasurer, two (2) clerks, the chief of police and the two (2) policemen.

Hon. Leon S. Mampusti was the first Mayor of Bansud. He was elected to the post the following year and held the position until 1964. Hon. Alejandro E. Minay was the second elected Mayor and served the term 1964-1967. Hon. Leon S. Mampusti proved to be a favorite of the town's people by trusting him again their votes and regaining the post in 1968 until his retirement in 1977. Designated as Officer in Charge of the Office of the Mayor was Hon. Noel C. Averion, a former Vice-Mayor and member of the Sangguniang Bayan but his internship in the office was short because on August 27, 1977 President Ferdinand E. Marcos appointed Dr. Prudente D. mayor was Hon. Noel C. Averion, a former Vice Mayor and member of the Sangguniang Bayan but his internship in the office was short because on August 27, 1977 President Ferdinand E. Marcos appointed Dr. Prudente D. Soller who was welcomed by majority of the townspeople and in 1980 he became the unopposed 4th elected Mayor. During the turn of Philippine political events in 1986 or the People Power Revolution, Mayor Soller was one among those replaced by the OIC's or the Officer's-In-Charge. Mr. Noel C. Averion was again designated Officer-In-Charge for the period 1986-1988. In 1988 local elections, Mayor Soller's popularity did not wane for he again won the mayoralty of the town and it even soared up with his reelection in 1992 and 1995 and holding the post until 1998, his last term as provided for by R.A. 7160 better known as the Local Government Code of 1991 and he was succeeded by his second child, Hon. Ferdinand Thomas M. Soller, who served for three terms 1998-2001, 2001-2004 and 2004-2007. In the election of May 2007 Hon. Ronaldo M. Morada won and had been entrusted by the people of Bansud to lead the town for the period June 30, 2007 up to June 30, 2016.

In the last political exercise, Hon. Angel M. Saulong was elected Mayor of the Municipality to serve the term June 30, 2016 up to June 30, 2019.

Ang unang nanirahan ditto sa barangay ay ang mga katutubong Mangyan na ito ay napakagubat at malai ang mga punong kahoy, makikita ditto ang mga ligaw na hayop tulad ng mga usa, baboy damo, unggoy at makikita ang tunay na likas na kayamanan ay saganang saganan.

Noong taong 1940, dumataing ditto ang mga ninuno na nagbuhat sa visaya tulad ng pamilya ng Jose Porgo, Feotimo Mustaza at mula sa katagalugan ay ang pamilya Aguilar, Deguia, Giba, Hernandez, Peradilla, Sadicon, Reoflorido, Declaro, Miranda, Pendil, at pamilya Casapao. Marami pang mha sumunod na ibat ibang mga ninuno sa Visaya at Katagalugan, ilian pa lamang sila nuon na naninirahan ditto dahil sa mahirap pa ang buhay, ditto nagsimulang putulin ang mha pinong kahoy at hulihin ang mga ligaw na hayop upang iyon ang gawing pagkain. Nagsimulang taniman ng niyog at pagkakaingin sa lugar ng Burol, ang pangigisda rin ang nagging angunahing hanap buhay ditto.

Noong panahong iyon, maraming mga tulisan a nagmula sa lugar ng Ponda na ngayun ay Masaguise dumaan sa bayan ng Bongabong, doon lumabas sa Labasan at nagsagupaan sa Sumagui kuha sa salitang Sagi at ditto sa lugar na ito maramng pinatay na tulisan at ditto inilibing sa lugar malapit sa ilog at mula noon tinawag itong Tiguisan. Ang ibig sabihin ay ditto maraming tulisan na tinigisan ng dugo at hanggang sa ngayon ay talgay pa ang pangalang ito.
